Action Floor Systems Offers Sustainability Brochure

A new eight-page brochure from Action Floor Systems details the company's capabilities in offering products that fully support "green" sustainable-design projects. The brochure also highlights Action Floor's environmentally-friendly manufacturing practices and facilities in Mercer, Wisconsin.

Action Floor Systems manufactures a wide variety of hardwood sports floor systems for any application. The company specializes in high-performance sports floors constructed of hard maple timber grown exclusively in northern Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. With the addition of Herculon® polyurethane synthetic and Action ReFlex recycled rubber flooring to its product line, Action Floor Systems is a single-source flooring supplier for any athletic or multipurpose application.
